

Harvard Asia-Pacific Clubs, Contacts & SIGs Leaders Meeting
19 March 2017
Singapore

FAS International Initiatives

Dr. Margot N. Gill, FAS Administrative Dean for International Affairs

HARVARD
Faculty of Arts and Sciences
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Harvard's International Footprint

- More than 700 major research projects around the world – 80 research centers – 19 field offices abroad
  - Fact: Harvard hosts more international scholars than any other university in the US
  - Enrollment: Total ~22,000 students, International students: 4,900 (22.3 %)
-

FAS International Affairs Office

- FAS has established an Office for International Affairs in Wadsworth House
- Dr. Margot N. Gill
Administrative Dean for International Affairs
- Kamille Washington, AB '10
Program Manager for International Affairs
- On the web at international.fas.harvard.edu

FAS International Affairs: Mission & Goals

The Office of International Affairs represents the FAS international interests, working with the College, GSAS, the Paulson School of Engineering and Applied Sciences, the Division of Continuing Education, and the International Centers to:

- Work directly with governments, foundations, and partner universities to develop new resources and to help foster collaborations for members of the FAS community
  - Develop opportunities for international research collaborations with FAS faculty
  - Develop and promote international opportunities for Harvard undergraduate and graduate students
  - Improve Harvard's ability to attract talented international undergraduates, graduate students, and postdoctoral fellows
-

Recent FAS International Initiatives

- Tunisia: CMES opens Tunis office to support North Africa & the Middle East (January 2017)
- Germany: Visiting students and post-docs traveling between Freie Universität Berlin, Humbolt University, and Harvard
- Turkey: Harvard-Bogazici collaboration in Byzantine Studies – new grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
- Taiwan: TUSA scholarships for doctoral students

Opening remarks by Hazem Ben-Gacem AB '92 at opening of CMES Tunisia Office

Recent FAS International Initiatives

- Philippines: FAS Workshop on Potential Collaborations with the Philippines (March 2017) – Inspired by the 2016 HAA Clubs/SIGs meeting in Manila

Harvard students working with ChildHope Philippines, January 2017

Members of the Harvard Philippine Forum

UP student Magnolia Del Rosario, 2015 Intercollegiate Business Convention