

Harvard Club of Panama EVENTS

Harvard Book Prize 2017

- 19 schools invited to participate

25 October 2017 – Breakfast Conversation on Fintech

- Felipe Echandi, Founder of “Cuanto”, a start up working on universal Access to digital payments and co-Founder of PanaFintech

5 December 2017 – Breakfast Conversation on “Maximizing Profits in Uncertain Times”

- Joey Levy, Financial Advisor

18 January 2018 – Breakfast Conversation with U.S. Ambassador

- John Feeley, former U.S. Ambassador to Panama

22 February 2018 – Breakfast Conversation on “Golden Warriors of the Rio Grande”

- Alexa Hancock, Archeologist

Next 2018 Events (in progress)

- Breakfast Conversations with Presidential Election Pre-Candidates Ernesto Perez Balladares, Romulo Roux and others
- Scheduling a Monthly Harvard Lunch at a local restaurant
- Family Art Activity with Olga Sinclair; a world renowned Panamanian artist

Harvard Club of Panama CHALLENGES

Keeping members engaged in our activities

- Effective communication strategies with alumni

Attracting younger alumni into leadership positions

- Mentorship

Involving “pass-through” alumni into Club activities

- Connecting with alumni that are in Panama for shorter periods of time

Documenting activities and raising awareness

- Media vs. private and safe forum

