

CES – Where Harvard & Europe Meet

- Established in 1969, the oldest center of its kind in the US
- Anchored within the Faculty of Arts and Sciences
- Mission:
 - Advance research and teaching on Europe
 - Convene vibrant discussions on Europe's past, present and future

CES Network of Europeanists

- 12 resident FAS faculty @ CES
- 37 faculty associates from across Harvard and MIT
- 53 graduate (PhD) student affiliates
- 25 visiting scholars
- 66 affiliated scholars in the metro Boston area

Programs Overview

- Over $550,000 in direct grant support for PhD dissertation & senior thesis research as well as internships
 - Intensive series of instructional research, writing and professional workshops for PhD candidates and undergraduates
 - Introduction of Secondary Field (Minor) in European History, Politics and Societies for undergraduates
-

Programs Overview

- Visiting Scholars Program annually convenes 25 eminent social scientists from around the world @Harvard
- Vibrant lecture series hosted 400+ speakers @Harvard in 2016-17

Programs Overview

- Jacek E. Giedrojc Gallery founded in 2013
 - 5 exhibitions
 - Current exhibit Poles Apart: Poland's Culture Wars

Advancing the Study of Europe @Harvard: Priorities

- More Europe at Harvard and more Europeans in the College and in Graduate Programs
- Retention of faculty positions on Europe
- Creating new endowed professorships
- Increasing visiting scholar/post-doctoral fellowship support
- Expanding Undergraduate Opportunities